THE HARPER'S FERRY AFFAIR.

We continue to select from the voluminous details with which the papers are filled, enough to give our readers a connected account of the trial of the conspirators, as well as some idea of public sentiment at the North.

THE TRIAL.—The prosecution got through with its witnesses on Friday, and the defence got under way. Towards the close of the proceedings, Brown got up from his mattress and addressed the Court. He said assurances had been given him that he was to have a fair trial, but those assurances had not been fulfilled. He had no confidence in the counsel assigned him, and witnesses expected for his defence had not been subpœned. He would ask, therefore, for a delay of proceedings until those witnesses could be found. Mr. Hoyt, a volunteer counsel for the defence, just arrived from Boston, joined in the request. Mr. Hunter, for the government, opposed. Messrs. Green and Botts then announced that, inasmuch as Brown had no confidence in their management of his case, they would withdraw from it altogether. They had hunted up the Marshal, late at night, to direct him to subpœna the witnesses. Mr. Botts said, "I make this suggestion, that as I now retire from this case, the more especially since there is now here a gentleman from Boston who has come out to volunteer his services for the prisoner, that the Court allow him this night for preparation. My notes, my office, and my services shall be at his command. I will sit up with him all night to put him in possession of all the law and facts in relation to this case. I cannot do more; and in the meantime the Sheriff can be directed to have the other witnesses here to-morrow morning." Finally, the Court, in order to give Mr. Hoyt, the new counsel, opportunity to post himself up, agreed to defer further proceedings until Saturday. The pretence of Brown was regarded as a trick to gain time. Mr. Hoyt admitted that the Virginia counsel had done what they could for the prisoner. Three of his witnesses had been examined, and the fourth had been there, but had gone home.

Capt. Cook has been all day busily engaged in writing, and is understood to be preparing a full confession by advice of Governor Willard, in hope of a pardon.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.

More Lawyers for Brown.—Judge Russell of the Superior Court, and George Sennott left here this afternoon, to take part in defence of Brown and others. It is reported that B. F. Fuller, democratic candidate for Governor, has also been retained by Brown and his friends.

The arrival of H. Griswold, Esq., from Cleveland, Ohio, to take part with Geo. H. Hoyt, Esq., of Boston, in the defence, has increased the excitement. It is also said that Samuel Chilton, Esq., of Washington, who arrived this morning, will join in the defence, so that the case will take a new course this morning.

The speech of Capt. Brown Friday evening, repudiating his counsel, Messrs. Botts and Green, who had certainly done all in their power for a case so utterly indefensible, has incensed the community against him to an extent that can scarcely be restrained.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.

Magruder, the law partner of S. C. Chilton, went to Charlestown to-day, to join Chilton in the defence of Brown and others. Retained by parties in Boston.

On Saturday, Brown's witnesses were present and examined, the object being to show that he had treated the citizens, while they were prisoners, with courtesy, and had refrained from killing as many as he might.

In the afternoon the arguments of Counsel were commenced, and continued till Monday afternoon, when the case was put to the jury. In half an hour the jury returned a verdict of guilty of Treason in conspiring with slaves and others to rebel, and guilty of Murder in the first degree.

After the conviction of Brown, his Counsel, Mr Griswold, moved an arrest of judgment, on the ground that it had not been expressly proved that Brown was a citizen of the U. S., and that treason could not be committed against a State, but only against the General Government. He cited also Judge Story to show that the jury could only find the prisoner guilty of crimes as charged in the indictment. They had not responded to the offences charged, but had found him guilty of murder in the first degree, when the indictment don't charge him with an offence constituting that crime.

Mr. Hunter replied by quoting the Virginia Code to the effect that technicalities should not arrest the administration of justice. As to jurisdiction over treason, it was sufficient to say that Virginia had passed a law assuming that jurisdiction and defining what constitutes that crime.

The Court reserved its decision.

On Tuesday morning a jury was completed in Coppee's case, and the examination of witnesses was commenced.

Gov. Willard, of Indiana, visited his brother-in-law, Cook, in jail, in company with Senator Mason. Gov. Willard urged Cook to make a full confession, in order to exonerate those who were innocent, and to punish those who were implicated. Cook signified his willingness to do so. He told Cook that he had nothing to hope for but death. Gov. Willard states that his family had lost sight of Cook for several years, and supposed he was dead, until upon reading his name in the papers, he determined to visit Charlestown to ascertain if he was his relative. Mrs. Willard, he states, is in great distress at the conduct of her brother.

A detachment of regular troops, twenty-five men, under Capt. S. M. Barbour, arrived at Harper's Ferry, and will probably remain there for its protection until Spring.

Brown still cherishes the idea that the Lord will release him. He says his life has many times been more greatly endangered.

"The Hamilton Union, printed a few miles from the residence of Gerrit Smith, says:—'On the reception of the news from Harper's Ferry, report says that this gentleman conferred with the Hon. Timothy Jenkins, about what he had better do. He advised him to leave the country. Rumor says that Gerrit is about to start for Canada.'"

We do not know how much truth there may be in the above, but Mr. Jenkins is, we believe, Mr. Smith's counsel on legal questions, and it would be most natural that he should consult him on a topic of so much personal importance. If Mr. Jenkins, who is one of the ablest lawyers in the State, advises him to "cut stick," we have but little doubt Smith would suddenly have business abroad.—Journal of Commerce.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.

Concerning Persons Implicated.—Senator Hale, of N. H., publishes a card strenuously denying all complicity in the Harper's Ferry movement, pledging himself that if the evidence is laid before the Grand Jury of Maryland or Virginia, and they find a true bill he will submit himself to a trial.

At Cleveland, Ohio, this morning, the confession of Copeland is published. He says that he was furnished with money to go to Virginia, by two Messrs. Plumb, of Oberlin.

Mrs. Sturdivant, of Cleveland, knew of the plans and supposed that her husband did also. The latter denies any knowledge of the transaction.

A GOOD SIGN.—The Fort Wayne (Indiana) Times, whose Editor is a member of the Republican State Convention says,—

"The moral of the late disturbance at Harper's Ferry is one that will not soon be forgotten. The people will ponder over it and make their own comments. Now that dangers are no longer prophecies, but a visible, tangible reality, staring them in the face with impunity and uttering sentiments which they never dreamed of, and threatening the stability of the Union, under whose ægis the people have lived in peace and flourished, beyond all precedent in the history of the world, they will see the suicidal policy which they have endorsed—the extreme of fanaticism—and will return to a more national and conservative policy. It will prove an argument against the doctrine which we have opposed, that will be unanswerable. If the elections in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa were to take place to-day, the result would prove of a different complexion from what it is. The people will now perceive that the tendency of this slavery excitement is evil, and pregnant with the most vicious results."

This is sensible, and we are happy to say that we see many other signs of conservative Republicans cutting loose from the ultra fragments of their party. In such a condition of public sentiment, it only needs a proper degree of moderation to bring the best of all good out of the late evil at Harper's Ferry, by banishing the slavery question out of the political arena, as well as stopping the practice of stealing from the South. We shall be greatly surprised if Northern people themselves do not make a strong effort to accomplish both these beneficent results.

ANOTHER RAY OF LIGHT.—The following incident, occurring at the capital of Ohio, in the very centre of anti-slavery, speaks well for one of the effects of the Harper's Ferry affair:—

CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—John Tyler, a fugitive slave who escaped from Campbell co., Va., in 1854, was arrested in Columbus yesterday and brought before Commissioner Newhall, who remanded him to his owners. He was taken to Kentucky.

This was much better than the following:

CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—The office of the Newport, Ky., Free South, a newspaper with Republican proclivities, was mobbed last night, and the "forms" of the paper scattered in the streets.

As the N. Y. Express says, this is playing into the hands of the Republicans, who will live a month on that "pi."

VIRGINIA POLICY.—In his Address to the Virginia State Agricultural Society, last week, the Hon. A. H. H. Stewart related the following incident:—

"An apt illustration of Virginia policy is to be found in an incident, which will probably be remembered by many of the inhabitants of this city, as it occurred within a short distance of the spot on which I now stand.

"About twenty years ago, it became necessary to erect a banking house in Richmond for the use of the Exchange Bank, then recently incorporated, and although the structure is probably erected on a stratum of granite, and certainly stands within a mile of the finest granite quarries in the Union, the granite of which it is constructed was imported from Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts!"

Mr. Pryor, just elected to Congress in Virginia, is a warm friend of Douglas, and beat an Administration Democrat in a district heretofore strongly favorable to Buchanan.

SOULE.—The report that the Hon. Pierre Soule had addressed an opposition meeting in New Orleans is contradicted. We thought it strange.

The Lancaster (Pa.) Union tells a good story of the President. It seems that Mr. Buchanan, on the train which lately bore him from Lancaster to Columbia, on his way to Washington, became interested in a brakesman, who was something of a wag, and made up his mind to "do something" for him. On the arrival of the train at Columbia, Mr. Buchanan accosted the brakesman, when the following dialogue took place:

Mr. Buchanan—"Young man, are you employed on this train?"

Brakesman—"Yes, Sir."

Mr. Buchanan (patronizingly)—"How would you like to have a situation at the White House?"

Brakesman (mischievously—"Old man, your time is too short!"

Mr. Buchanan made tracks for the bridge.

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 3, 1859.

THE FAIR.—This favorite Institution is under way satisfactorily. It opened yesterday, with several hundred entries. The list when we last heard had reached No. 563. There was a good attendance yesterday; and to-day, as we go to press, there is doubtless a very great throng.

Wm. W. Holden, Esq. arrived yesterday afternoon, and was received with every mark of respect by the Committee of Reception and citizens. His Address, at 12 M., will doubtless attract a large audience.

The Cornet Band has enlivened the grounds with its fine music, a voluntary offering to the occasion.

MECKLENBURG FAIR.—We learn from the Charlotte Democrat that the Fair was a "grand success." 860 articles, including over 100 horses and colts, were exhibited, and there were visiters from 16 counties in this State and 5 Districts in South Carolina. Hon. D. M. Barringer delivered an excellent Address. About 170 premiums were paid in silver cups, baskets, and other silver ware, and 8 or 10 in books.

Among the premiums, we notice the following:

To Maj. R. S. Young, of Cabarrus, for best lot of Milch cows, and for best single Milch cow—giving 5 gallons and 1 pint per day—1st premium, silver cake basket.

To D. F. Dixon, for largest yield of Irish potatoes, 310 bushels per acre, first premium, silver goblet.

To Dr. J. M. Strong, for largest yield of sweet potatoes, 392 bushels to the acre, first premium, silver fish knife.

THE HARNETT ELECTION.—The following statement of the precinct vote at the late election which decided in favor of "Lillington" as the County Town, reached us just as Monday's paper had gone to press:—

	Lillington.	Toomer.
Averasboro',	108	3
Grove,	68	0
Neill's Creek,	175	1
Buckhorn,	83	30
Upper Little River,	54	65
Barbecue,	118	21
Stewart's Creek,	18	20
	624	140

Majority in favor of Lillington 484.

LILLINGTON.—The Wilmington Journal says that there is a flourishing town called Lillington in New Hanover county, and as confusion will arise from having two towns and post offices of the same name, it thinks that the new Lillington should select some other name.

NEW HANOVER COURT.—Tom Lunsford, a free negro, has been found guilty of attempting to abduct a slave of Mr. Robins. Three other free negroes, indicted with him, were acquitted.

ROBBERY AND MURDER.—A letter from Mount Olive, Wayne county, N. C., to the Newbern Progress, states that on the night of the 20th ult. J. B. Bowden, Esq., was robbed, and shockingly beaten, until he was supposed to be dead, and his body thrown into a pond of water. His recovery is doubtful. A man named Capps has been committed to jail on suspicion.

The same letter mentions that an interesting little girl of 12 years narrowly escaped being burnt to death in Goldsboro', from her clothes taking fire, owing to wearing hoops.

IN LUCK.—The political friends, in Perquimons county, of the Senior Editor of "The State," an American paper published at Elizabeth City, N. C., have presented him with "a magnificent horse," for which he expresses his thanks in appropriately warm terms. A firm in Elizabeth City has also presented him with "a Meerschaum pipe, with all the necessary fixtures and appurtenances." These are expressions of admiration for his able advocacy of the election of Mr. Smith to Congress.

A MONSTER POTATO.—Joseph J. Hackney, Esq., of Chatham county, has sent to us a sweet potato which weighed, when dug, eight pounds. Can any body beat that?

A PATRIOT.—The much slandered Gov. Corwin, of Ohio, recently wrote the following letter in reply to an invitation to a barbecue in Kentucky. There is true patriotism in the efforts and the wish of this old line Whig, who fights "the heresies of Republicanism and the delusions of Democracy."

LEBANON, (Ohio) Sept. 25, 1859.

DEAR SIR: I have been so constantly engaged since I saw you, and especially since the receipt of your letter inviting me to be with you on the occasion of your Mass Meeting on the 23d inst. that I believe that I have not answered your note. I have been constantly on the stump fighting the heresies of Republicanism and the delusions of Democracy. The former, I trust, in Ohio, are thoroughly expurged from the creed of that party, and the latter, I hope, are somewhat damaged. I find the public mind of Ohio opening to a more catholic view of national affairs, especially on the dangerous question of slavery. Now let Kentucky meet us at some safe half way house, so that we may sit down in peace together again. Give my best regards to Mr. Moore, and believe me, as ever, your sincere friend,

THOMAS CORWIN.

J. J. MILLER, Esq.

At the U. S. District Court in Wilmington, Judge Biggs presiding, Cicero Craige, a young man of New Hanover county, was arraigned for enlisting, or attempting to enlist, troops for a foreign service, the "Liberal" government of Mexico. The District Attorney failed to make out any but a merely technical case, and Craige was discharged.

THE REV. DR. HAWKS.—A careful reader of the proceedings of the late General Convention of the Episcopal Church could not fail to observe that its action on important points was more influenced by this distinguished divine than by all others in the Convention. A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury gives the following description of one of his speeches in a matter concerning the relative rights of the House of Bishops and the House of Clerical and Lay Delegates; in which, as in other matters, the latter House affirmed the position taken by Dr. Hawks:—

"Then arose the oratorum facile princeps—the man who enchains the minds and hearts of all hearers by a magic power—Dr. Hawks. He said the question was not whether the Rubrics ought to be relaxed, but whether this house can conscientiously relinquish its rights. He occupied a better ground in this discussion than the preceding speaker (Dr. V.) in that he had not been, on a previous occasion, the accuser of the Bishops. Their acts must be one of three kinds: 1, co-ordinate with this house, legislative; 2, judicial; or 3, acts of a Council. We know nothing of their records as a Council. This was a power lately assumed, undefined and unknown to the constitution. They could not be judicial, as there was no case before them to decide. They must then be legislative. Legislation was co-ordinate with this house, and must be approved by it, or it is void. [At this point Dr. H. had exhausted his fifteen minutes, but was, by universal consent, allowed to proceed.] Did the Church consist of Bishops only? Nay. Of Clergy only? Nay. Of laity only? Nay—but of the whole body of the faithful. All orders were here represented, and must all have their voice heard. He showed that the separate action of the Bishops had produced injurious results, and developed dangerous tendencies. The whole fallacy of his predecessor's argument was that the Bishops had a prerogative founded on prescription. No such prerogative for separate action in this body existed.

"Such were the main points of his argument. His words may be caught by the wonderful art of phonography and set before your readers' eyes; but the rich tones of the speaker's voice, his natural and appropriate gestures, the animation of his countenance, the fire of his eye, and tout ensemble of his true eloquence, must be seen and heard in order to be felt."

DENIALS.—Gerrit Smith, Giddings, and Greely, and the New England Emigrant Aid Society, all deny that they were identified with or privy to Brown's scheme. Even Dr. Howe of Boston, though admitting a correspondence with Col. Forbes, and not denying the accuracy of the villainous disclosures made to him by the Colonel, pretends that he had "no connection with the conspiracy of Brown, or responsibility for his acts." We expect next to see Brown himself repudiating all responsibility for the acts of "John Smith," under which name he passed at Harper's Ferry until his war broke out. But no; old Brown, with all his villainies, has too much pluck for that. It is only the cravens who have set him on that are ready to shun responsibility, as they kept out of harm's way in the fight.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.—The N. Y. Express thinks that Brown's life might be spared if his advisers and abettors were surrendered to the authorities of Virginia. Yes, we would agree to that. Hang Seward and Giddings and Sumner and Hale, the scurvy politicians who have ridden into power and kept themselves out of harm's way, whilst they have used the Browns and the Cooks and the Kagis, to kill Southern people and to grace the gallows. By all means let the exchange be made.

RATHER MISTAKEN.—Horace Greely, repudiating the statements of Col. Hugh Forbes, says, among other things,—

"I do not believe that John Brown ever wilfully deceived him or any one else."

What, not when he went to Virginia and called himself John Smith, and rented a place under the pretext of mining? Ah, Mr. Greely, you are caught napping this time. Better endeavor to bolster up your own evil deeds than Brown's.

A SPEECH BY GIDDINGS.—The Hon. J. R. Giddings of Ohio delivered a speech in Philadelphia on Friday night last to a "large audience," and we are sorry to see that "the applause was frequent and occasionally excessive," for it was one of the vilest incendiary speeches ever delivered in the country. He disclaimed any knowledge of Brown's plans, though he admitted that they had corresponded, that he had given Brown money, and had had him at his house, where they talked on the subject of slavery. But he gloated over the expectation and the hope that the time would come when Brown's aims would be accomplished.

The Response.—The response of the Northern Press to the "Provisional Government" operations, so far as we have yet heard it, has been mainly of the right kind. It has been a simultaneous burst of execration upon the plot and the plotters, their friends, and abbettors, open or secret. All the conservative presses unite in seizing upon the occasion to call back the minds of the North and West to the sentiments that prevailed in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and to impress upon them the results and natural tendencies of this slavery agitation, this fanatical crusade against one part of the country by another. The response thus far has justified the opinion we expressed at the moment the news of the outbreak at Harper's Ferry reached us, that it would be a blow against abolition from which it would not soon recover. In nothing is the effect already produced more strikingly seen than in the efforts which the Black Republican papers are making to shield themselves and their party, and party leaders, from the tremendous recoil upon them which they perceive, and evidently with great distinctness, is almost inevitable from these diabolical schemes. They hasten to disavow any sympathy whatever with the Harper's Ferry plot, to denounce its instigators and executors as worthy of the severest penalties, as criminals and madmen.

Richmond Whig.

COTTON RECEIPTS.—641,999 bales, against 555,898 last year. Increase 86,601 bales.

TURN ABOUT AGAIN.—The Democratic papers, finding that they can make capital among the ignorant in their own party by charging upon Southern Whigs, (such as Mr. Gilmer for instance,) unfaithfulness to the South, are trying the game upon their own men. We find the following in yesterday's Standard, where its author is denounced as a "slanderer and calumniator;—

"The Warrenton News, for example, professes to be a great friend of harmony; yet that paper deliberately charges that Mr. Bledsoe, one of the members of the Democratic State Committee, has encouraged, and is encouraging "the insidious approaches of freesoilism."

RICHARDSON'S

IRISH LINENS, DAMASKS, DIAPERS, &C.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the genuine goods, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed on with goods of a worthless character.

WILL BE SOLD, at the late residence of James Young, Sr., deceased, Bulloch county, Ga., on the first Tuesday in December next, the following property, belonging to the estate of the said James Young, to wit: 22,135 acres of Pine, Oak, Hickory, and rich Bay Land, on the Central Rail Road, in Scriven and Bulloch counties, on the great Ogeechee river, and from 55 to 61 miles from the city of Savannah; five large and well improved Plantations, in a high state of cultivation, with commodious Dwelling Houses, Negro, Gin, and all other out Houses commonly on farms. On the Homestead place, is a splendid mansion, all the buildings new, a fine saw, grist, smut and flowering mill, in full operation.

Fifteen tracts of these, are heavy and densely timbered, on which are several fine sites for mills, building and improvements. The timbers are inexhaustible, and and very valuable—convenient to Savannah, one of the best lumber and timber markets in the world, having the advantage of the great Ogeechee river, (one of the best rivers south for rafting,) and the great C. R. R. of Georgia passing through it—this road alone, buy millions of feet of small lumber for repairs along the line; besides, there are thousands of large trees on these lands that will bring from $15 to $35 per stick or tree, in Savannah market. These lands are also valuable for agricultural purposes—over 50 bushels per acre of corn frequently produced on the bay land. Apples, peaches, pears, cherries, and grapes, grow well—two hours on the rail road will land this fruit in Savannah, where it commands a good price, and sixty hours from there to New York, one of the best fruit markets in the world. Sea Island and Upland Cotton, do well.

15,928 acres of Land, lying in Bulloch county, consisting of sixteen tracts, thirteen of said tracts in one body, and bounded as follows: northwardly by lands of E. Beasly, D. Hendricks, T. Hendricks, J. Hendricks, T. Evans, and Mrs. Fench; westwardly by J. Hendricks, G. D. Mallard, M. Moore, and J Dixon; South by L. Lanier, E. Wells, Hodges D. Brower, and M. Donaldson; eastwardly by the great Ogeechee river. Another tract, 503 acres, bounded northward and westward by M. Donaldson; south by Dr. Coleman, and east by the great Ogeechee river. Another of said tracts, 1,339 acres, bounded west by E. Allen; south by A. Akins; east by H. Lanier, and north by H. Lanier. Another tract of 285 acres, east by vacant land; southwest by vacant, and northwest by land of John Miller; also one tract in Scriven county, containing 585 acres, bounded northwardly by lands of S. Burk, Mrs. Barber, Dixon, and Burk; eastwardly by Burk and Thomas Burns; south and west by Thomas Burns and the great Ogeechee river; one-half mile from No. 6 C. R. R. Another tract, 425 acres, bounded southwardly and westwardly by Thomas Barber, and northwardly and eastwardly by Cooper's land. Another tract of 2,322 acres, bounded north by Lee and westwardly by Hollingsworth, Thompson and J. Cameron; east and northwardly by Evans, Cameron, Moore and Wood. Another tract, 220 acres, bounded southward and eastward by Wm. S. Moore; west by Lee, and north by Woods. All these lands are well watered.

About four or five hundred head of fine hogs will be sold also; about thirty head of mules and horses, wagons, carts, timber carriages, two or three sets of black-smith's tools, one yoke of oxen, four or five cotton gins, and other plantation tools and implements, one cast iron cane mill, and household and kitchen furniture.

TERMS.—All sums under five dollars, cash on delivery; personal property will be sold on twelve months credit, small notes, interest from date, with two approved securities; the real estate will be sold, one-fourth payable in three months, the balance in one and two years—all notes to bear interest from date, and be secured by mortgage on the land, and at least one or two good indorsers. Purchasers paying for titles.

Persons wishing information by letter, will please address Jno. CAMERON, at Ogeechee P. O., Scriven Co., Georgia.

Persons wishing to examine the lands are respectfully invited to call on John Cameron, at No. 54 C. R. R., who will take pleasure in giving all the information required.

Persons wishing to purchase can find a map of these lands at the editors' office.

Additional time will be given to heavy purchasers.

EXECUTION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN PUBLIC.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—For some few years past, my attention has been now and then called to the probable tendency of capital punishment—especially the manner in which it is administered in our State. Indulge me a few moments while I lay this before your readers. Not many years ago, there were two colored men executed in Pitt county for murder. Last year there were two in Edenton, and last week, one in Plymouth. All of those criminals, if we have not been misinformed, and many others which might be mentioned, were either professors of religion before the fatal deed was done, or made a profession before the day of execution arrived. Thus, when the hour came, they were ready to express their hope of future happiness, and the execution being public, they are looked upon, especially by the ignorant, as exemplars of christian piety. Here we think is an evil; and in this way public executions generally have a bad tendency. We do not oppose capital punishment. The whipping-post and the gallows are certainly, to my mind, two of the greatest preventatives of crime known to the civilized world, apart from the religion of the Bible. No nation should be without them. But we oppose the manner in which these executions take place in our State. Here is a man who is guilty of the highest crime under heaven—that of taking the life of his fellow-man. He is tried, and his lawyer labors to defend and clear him; but he is convicted and sentenced to be hanged on a certain day. The time comes. Here now, around this scaffold, is assembled from five to ten thousand people, of all classes and colors, to witness the scene. The minister, with a sanctimonious air, ascends the scaffold, preaches a funeral sermon, and prays with and exhorts the prisoner to put his trust in his Maker. Here then, before the gaze of thousands, the impression is made, by a grave clergyman, that all the man has to fear is the sting of death, which is nearly extracted by his hope of a blissful immortality. The convict then arises and expresses his hope of heaven, and requests all to meet him in the "better land." Now, is it not clear, that such an exhibition is calculated to produce bad effects upon the minds of servants and ignorant white people. "Why," says one to himself, "how is this? Here is a man guilty of one of the foulest crimes known among men; and yet he says he is going from the scaffold to the throne. If this be true, the safer way for me to get to heaven is to go and kill some one, and let them hang me. I have got to die, sometime, and I had as well die this way, where I will have such ample time to prepare for death, as any other." Who will say, that such sentiments do not often run through the minds of bystanders, as they listen to those professions of piety, which so often fall from the lips of the murderers. And I think this, to some extent, accounts for the fact, that within the last five years, so many murders have been committed in Eastern N. C.—not less than ten or twelve. Now, might not this evil be avoided, if the penalty of the law was inflicted in private? Then, without any danger of producing evil on society, the minister might visit the criminal and labor for his soul's eternal interest. And those loud professions of piety from the gallows would be avoided; for in our opinion, these are the last men who should be held up before the world as fit subjects for heaven. In addition to this, I think the idea of death in private, away from the bustle and stir of the multitude, would be far more terrifying; and would have a much greater tendency to deter men from crime. AMO.

FOR THE OBSERVER.

NORWALK, Oct. 30, 1859.

Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son:—Gentlemen:—I think I saw a statement in your paper in relation to the New Rochell Blackberry; I merely wish to correct an error. You gave the residence of Messrs. Geo. Seymour & Co., as being at New Rochell, whereas they reside in this place, Norwalk, Fairfield Co., Conn., and have never resided elsewhere. They have been successful growers of this variety of blackberry for years past.

You further state that you have abundance of the blackberry in the vicinity of Fayetteville, and as fine and large as the New Rochell.

Now, sir, I will make a proposition: That is, in case you have as fine, or even not as fine, yet if they can be had at a reasonable price in their season, delivered in Fayetteville or vicinity, I will agree to come there and to take from 1 to 500 bushels, should I live and keep my health until that time, and will pay the cash for them as delivered.

Now, sir, here is a chance for some of your people to turn a now worthless article comparatively into cash. Will they do it? I will take even more than I have named if they are to be had at a reasonable price.

Yours respectfully,

CHS. F. RAYMOND.

Geo. W. Gee, Esq., is growing the New Rochell blackberry, and we shall be able the coming season to compare them as to yield, size and quality. C. F. R.

Letter to the Editors of the Observer, dated

WAVERLY, Ark. Oct. 26.

The crops in this section of Ark. are as fine as we could ask for; we will make from 40 to 60 bushels corn per acre, and from 1500 to 2500 lbs. cotton, and some say they will make more than that. Will. R. Vaughan, formerly of Richmond Co., N. C., says off of 400 acres he will get 900,000 lbs. seed cotton. We have had good health this season; but usually we have a good deal of chill and fever. But the finest country for corn and cotton in the United States.

Hon. Edward Stanly.—Our highly esteemed fellow-citizen and former townsman, Hon. Edward Stanly and lady, arrived here on Saturday last. They will remain but a few days. Business engagements, we presume, will call them back at an early day to California.

Though Mr. Stanly has been a citizen of California for several years, it seems unnatural to consider him anything else but a North Carolinian. We are glad to find him in excellent health and but little altered in appearance. Socially, he is the same urbane, whole-souled, unaffected gentleman.—Washington Dispatch.

Jones Superior Court.—This Tribunal assembled in Trenton on Monday after dinner, Judge Saunders on the bench. After the Grand Jury had been organized, which took but a few minutes, his Honor proceeded to take up the criminal docket, which was despatched in less time than one hour.

Among the causes tried, in that short time, was an indictment against a couple of gentlemen for an affray, in which one had said, he believed the other would swear to a lie, whereupon the the other knocked him down. His Honor fined the one who did the accusing, five dollars, and the one who did the knocking, one dollar.

Also an indictment against a woman for stealing a pig. This case, his Honor refused to hear, further than to learn that the woman was not worth anything, and told the Solicitor, that she would pay for the pig, but he must get the cost the best way he could.

The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, when the civil docket was taken up and disposed of in about two hours, and his Honor left for Raleigh.—Newbern Progress.

The Kansas Work—Interesting Reports.—Col. H. Clay Pate, of Virginia, has denied publicly many of the statements put forth by John Brown and his friends. A gallant friend, now residing on James' Island, who served a faithful tour in Kansas on behalf of the South, informs us that the "life and statements which are reported as found among Brown's papers, are in many respects, false. That friend, whose name we may give hereafter, will be recognized by many readers who will gladly receive the statements and explanations promised. Meanwhile, we beg attention to the following letter:

JAMES' ISLAND, S. C., October 28, 1859.

Messrs. Editors Courier:—It is stated by Northern papers that old Brown was led to the perpetration of his late acts in retaliation of his treatment at the hands of the border ruffians in Kansas, particularly the killiing of his son Frederick. I am well posted on old Brown's life in Kansas, and if a truthful statement of the same is desired by you, I will devote an hour to the subject. I state, as a fact, that his son was killed in Kansas by a Free State man, a citizen of Illinois, and a Minister of the Gospel—a man that was by report murdered by pro-slavery men. The Northern papers, particularly the New York Tribune, will recognize the man when I declare that "Poor Martin White" was the man that shot "old Brown's son." I saw it done; and the same day I shot 'old Brown,' and now regret that I did not finish him. As regards old Brown's Abolitionism, it was merely a cloak to covering his thieving propensity, he having been the leader of a gang of horse thieves. KANSAS.

We beg the attention of Northern exchanges and readers who are disposed to excuse Brown's outrages on the plea of frenzied revenge, to this truthful statement.

A letter from Washington City says:

"The feeling gains ground here, and in Virginia also, that taking into consideration the doubts about Brown's sanity, and the certainty that he was a tool in the hands of leading abolitionists, a measure of mercy might very well be extended to him, and that, on the other hand, the severest punishment should be inflicted on those who encouraged him in his mad project."

Old Brown's raid is the "Courier's" theme. The fright of Virginia, too, is the Courier's theme:

"There is nothing like it in American history."

We forget, that Collector Schell and Marshal Rynders invoked U. S. Troops and Marines into Wall street, because a few "Famine" Loafers held a meeting in the Exchange, and threatened to sack the Banks, and the Sub-Treasury. We forget that twenty or thirty Dead Rabbits shut up the Sixth and Fourth Wards of our city. We forget that a few Irish Loafers at Bergen stopped the Erie Railroad and the U. S. Mail for three days. Then adds the Courier:

"We of the North who believe in free labor, would laugh to scorn any attempt to excite the employed to rise in arms against their employers."

Not true! For hours and hours here people quaked in their houses, during the Famine Panic and Bread Riots, of the Autumn, 1858!—when mobs tore up the fences of Tompkins Park, and made fuel of them—and sacked bakers' carts in the streets.

The excitement of the employed against the employers, it is well known, is one of the most alarming traits of Northern society,—and one in which we should sympathize with, not sneer at, as the Courier does, the natural excitement in Virginia. But this sort of writing is indispensable to keep up the mere Sectional Northern Republican Party!—N. Y. Express.

That Democratic Dog.—While Tom Corwin was addressing a large meeting at Springfield, Ohio, not long since, and was soaring into the higher regions of political eloquence, a black, middle-sized, and morose-looking bull terrier mounted the platform, and, taking his place beside the speaker, surveyed the assembled sovereigns with a severe countenance and a melancholy wag of his caudal stump. His debut was greeted with roars of laughter, and Tom Corwin paused in the middle of a sentence. Turning toward the intruding animal, he waved his hand courteously, saying: "Come, one at a time, if you please." The terrier retired a few paces, and glanced quizzically at the speaker, when Corwin advanced to the edge of the stand, and said to the people, in a very confidential tone: "I do believe he intends to leave the other dogs and join the Republican party." This palpable hit was received with a tempest of laughter and applause, in the midst of which his dogship trotted out of the hall with his tail at an angle of intense disgust.—Ex. Pap.

The editor of the Warrenton (Va.) Flag has in his possession a plain gold ring one hundred and thirty-eight years old! It has engraved on it, in old style, these words: "J. W., obit March ye 7th, 1721." It was ploughed up by one of the servants on a plantation, in the county of King George. The ring is of pure gold, and is supposed by some to have been the property of the father of Gen. Washington, as the intials, we believe, are the same. The owner has been offered and refused the sum of two hundred dollars for it.

WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES.

THE Scientific American says:—"We are having a great many inquiries for Sewing-Machines from various parts of the country, and as we cannot conveniently reply to them all by mail, we have thought it proper to state our opinion in regard to them in this public manner. We have used Wilson's patent, manufactured by the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company, No. 505 Broadway, and we can say, in regard to it, that it is without a rival. It is simple, not easily put out of order when in proper hands, and in point of effectiveness and finish, no other machine stands ahead of it. We state this much in regard to this excellent machine, upon our own responsibility."

I expect another supply in a few days. Price $50.

A Southern Utraist.—Ex-Gov. Adams in a recent letter, declining to attend the dinner given to Senator Chesnut, expresses the belief that the "leaders" at the South are too much under the influence of the "blandishments at Washington" to be able to do justice to the South. He adds:

"I could name ten Southern Senators, who by a concerted movement, could, in less than three months, rally their respective constituents in favor of a Southern Confederacy."

Lawyer and Witness.—A story is told of a very eminent lawyer receiving a severe reprimand from a witness on the stand whom he was trying to browbeat. It was an important issue, and in order to save his cause from defeat it was necessary that Mr. A——— should impeach the witness. He endeavored to do it on the ground of age. The following dialogue ensued:—

Lawyer—"How old are you?"

Witness—"Seventy-two years."

Lawyer—"Your memory, of course, is not so brilliant and vivid as it was twenty years ago, is it?"

Witness—"I do not know but it is."

Lawyer "State some circumstance which occurred, say twelve years ago, and we shall be able to see how you can remember."

Witness—"I appeal to your honor if I am to be interrogated in this manner: it is insolent!"

Judge—"You had better answer the question."

Lawyer—"Yes, sir; state it!"

Witness—"Well, sir, if you compel me to do it, I will. About twelve years ago you studied in Judge B———'s office, did you not?"

Lawyer—"Yes."

Witness—"Well, sir, I remember your father coming into my office and saying to me, 'Mr D. my son is to be examined to-morrow, and I wish you would lend me fifteen dollars to buy him a suit of clothes.' I remember also, sir, that from that day to this he has never paid me that sum. That, sir, I remember as though it was yesterday."

Lawyer (considerably abashed)—"That will do, sir."

Witness—"I presume it will."

Tasso replied, to a proposition that he should take vengeance on a man who had injured him, "I do not wish to deprive him either of his goods, his honor, or his life. I only wish to deprive him of his ill will."

Squire Jack was a cabinet-maker and undertaker, known far and wide as a master workman.

One day a couple came to his office to get married. The man's face was familiar to the Squire, and he ordered him off in this wise:

"Begone, you scoundrel. You haven't paid me for your first wife's coffin!"

MACHINERY.

The Committee regret to find so few articles for examination: 3 Sewing Machines, 1 Washing Machine and 1 Bung Cutter, being all on exhibition. Between the Sewing Machines of Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson and Singer's, there is not much difference as to the quality and quantity of work, but for simplicity and consequent durability, Wheeler & Wilson's, in the opinion of the Committee, has the advantage. Wheeler & Wilson's, exhibited by Dr. S. J. Hinsdale; Singer's by A. A. McKethan, Esq. The Quaker City Machine, exhibited by Dr. Scott, is a very good one of the kind, (chain stitch.)

The Washing Machine exhibited by J. H. Cook, Esq., seems to be a very good one, but we have no opportunity of trying it.

The Bung Cutter is a Machine of real merit; a good machine for this purpose has long been wanted, and as this one is of North Carolina invention and manufacture, and a complete success, the inventor and manufacturer, Mr. David Kivett, should in the opinion of the Committee, have the highest premium alloted to such articles.

The committee on Cabinet Work regret that so few articles in this line have been placed on exhibition; in a community where there are so many skilful workmen, they think a much larger and better display should have been made.

The Committee desire to call attention to a "Rocker" made by Makepeace & Armitage, also to 2 Panels of Fencing made by them at 30 cts. per foot. This fence is made by machinery, and is very handsome. Also, they call attention to a lot of Hoe Handles and Water Buckets, manufactured by Makepeace & Armitage; also to an Ornament for Windows.

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE.

MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, 1859.

A RIDE UPON THE RAILROAD.—From amidst newspapers and books, it is pleasant to open a leaf of the book of Nature, at this season of forest glories. It was our fortune to have occasion on Saturday last for a trip up the Western Railroad to "the Spout Spring," to which the iron is laid. The road, as is well known, is admirably constructed, smooth and substantial, and every thing about it appears to be well managed.

The woods are very beautiful, not improved by the hand of man, but rich with the brilliant colors so profusely scattered over them by the hand of God. The oak undergrowth is resplendent with every hue, from a pale yellow to the deepest blood red, looking like an illimitable garden, adorned with millions of gay flowers. Above these tower the tall and graceful long-leaf pines, with their deep green foliage. To one who seldom gets into the woods at this season of the year, the scene is very beautiful.

Arrived at the Spout Spring station, (where the Company has erected a handsome and commodious depot building,) a walk of nearly two miles further led us over that part of the line upon which Messrs. Worth & Sons have been so long at work,—so long because from the nature of the ground but few hands could be employed upon it. It consists of two embankments and two deep cuts, with scarcely a foot of level space. One of the cuts is three-fourths of a mile in length, with an average depth of probably at least 20 feet, the deepest part being 34 feet 4 inches. And one of the embankments is more than half a mile in length, the highest part being 42 feet. We are apt to regard our sand-hill country as being pretty level, but the Engineer's instruments show the reverse. The line shows that a vast deal of work has been done, and well done. The Worth contract will probably be finished within six weeks.

THE FAIR.—Our town was very full last week of attendants upon the County Fair—a very interesting occasion, successful, useful, and pleasant. The number of articles entered for exhibition was 632, a very few more than last year; but in most departments, particularly the agricultural, showing a manifest improvement.

There was a large crowd present on Thursday, made up of all classes, civil and military, with a great number of ladies.

The Address of W. W. Holden, Esq., of Raleigh, delivered at noon of that day, after an appropriate introduction by A. McLean, Esq., Mayor, was a remarkably sensible and judicious effort, mainly devoted to the agricultural and mechanical interests, and internal improvements, upon all of which he has evidently thought much and informed himself thoroughly. It was received with decided approbation by a large audience; and we are glad to learn that at the request of the Society it is to be published. Its extensive circulation cannot fail to do good.

We had scarcely a fair opportunity of particularizing many of the excellent articles exhibited, but must content ourselves with a reference to the detailed List of Premiums furnished by the Executive Committee—to whom, by the way, too much praise cannot be awarded for their untiring efforts from year to year in this labor of love.

HUZZA FOR THE SAND-HILLS OF OLD CUMBERLAND.—The most remarkable and gratifying things that we saw at the Fair last week, were the evidences of agricultural improvement manifest in every part of Farmers' Hall. Great crops of corn, large ears of corn, large potatoes, &c. &c., showed not only that the season had been propitious, but that man had done his part by the earth which "yielded the increase."

Among the productions, we have before us the certificate of A. McC. Currie, Angus McGill, and B. Richardson, that they saw an acre in Corn, cultivated by Mr. Graham D. Baker of this county, were present when it was gathered, shelled and measured, and the fodder and shucks weighed, and that the produce was ninety-six bushels, three pecks and one quart of corn, 1246 lbs. of fodder, and 764 lbs. of shucks. The most remarkable fact is, that this immense production was on one acre of reclaimed old sandy land.

Again, Mr. Baker had a field of sixty acres of reclaimed sandy old field, which has produced 1800 bushels of corn, or an average of thirty bushels to the acre.

Once more, that Mr. Baker has picked from one acre of such land 1134 lbs. of Cotton.

Mr. Baker gave us a verbal account of the amount expended in enriching his land, by fertilizers, and of the value of the crops produced, but we are afraid to repeat it upon memory alone. The excess of profit was, however, very large, and besides that, his land is left in a far better condition than it was before.

Mr. G. W. Bullard of this county, came next in quantity of corn from one acre, viz: 77½ bushels. The ground was originally poor, with clay sub-soil at from 4 to 10 inches deep, has been tended in corn for the last five years. He bestowed upon it 50 cart loads of compost manure and 500 lbs. Guano, costing, together, $28 75. The produce, in corn and forage, is worth nearly $100. During the last three years, this acre has produced 233½ bushels of corn, at a cost of $93 in manures.

These facts are highly encouraging to the intelligent farmer, who is willing to profit by the teachings of experience, and to enrich himself by liberality. Truly does the wise man say, "there is that scattereth and yet increaseth."

MOORE COUNTY FAIR.—The Annual Fair in our sister county of Moore will take place on Thursday and Friday, the 24th and 25th inst.

HENRY W. MILLER AT CLINTON.—We learn that Mr. Miller has consented to deliver his Lecture on the 18th Century, in the Baptist Church at Clinton, on to-morrow evening the 8th inst.

THE U. S. ARSENAL.—We think, in view of all the circumstances, especially those of recent occurrence, it is high time for Congress to carry out the original design of the Arsenal at this place, by making it an Arsenal of Construction. It has remained idle and useless quite long enough. Before a bill can be passed through the ensuing session of Congress, the railroad to the coal and iron and timber region of Deep river will be completed, and that difficulty in the way will be removed. We trust that our entire Delegation in Congress will feel interested in accomplishing this important object at the earliest possible day.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—We owe thanks to P. M. Powell, Esq., of Richmond county, for the premium Beet exhibited at the fair, weighing 14½ lbs; to Mr. W. B. Surles, of Harnett county, for the largest Sweet Potato, weighing 8 lbs.; and to J. W. Pipkin, also of Harnett, for a number of very large Potatoes, one of which weighed upwards of 7 lbs.

We had also a present from Joel Williams, Esq., of an enormous "Pie Melon," big enough to make a pie for several families; but whilst our back was turned, some envious body, unwilling that we should have the "proof of the pudding," (or pie,) incontinently, with force and arms, carried off our prospective pies, and left us without the means of judging of this latest invention, or discovery.

But the most liberal of all the kind remembrances which the occasion has furnished to us, comes from our friend Dr. C. C. Covington, of Rockingham, Richmond county, the pioneer in that section of the State, we believe, in the delightful business of cultivating fine fruits. He has sent us a large number of the finest Apples from his orchard, of the following twenty-four varieties, viz: Mammoth Pippin, Vandervere, Byer's Red, Roxbury Russet, Baldwin, Robinson, Pryor's Red, Belleville Pearmain, Red Romanite, Shockley, Winesap, Glocester Cheese, Green Cheese, Winter Pearmain, Gully Seedling, Webb's Winter, Mattamuskeet, Clark's Pearmain, Stevenson's Winter, Cullasaga, Barrow Seedling, Hall Seedling, Rawle's Jannet, Castor Crab.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Synod of the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina met in Wilmington on Wednesday evening last. The opening Sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Doll, Moderater of last Synod.

The Rev. F. K. Nash has been elected Moderator, and the Rev. Messrs. Lafferty and Junken Clerks.

On Thursday, nothing of importance was done, and on Friday, appeals and complaints of decisions of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, of no public interest, were considered.

The next Synod will meet at Statesville.

WEALTH OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.—Mr. C. D. Smith, one of the Editors of the Franklin (N. C.) Observer, has been traveling among the mountains as Assistant to Professor Emmons, State Geologist, and writes to his paper the result of his observations.

Near the mouth of Tuckasegee river he examined a bed of black slate, some of which will perhaps be workable into roofing slates. On Capt. Jarrett's lands he found fine specimens of roofing slate.

Within six miles of the mouth of Nantahala, he found the out-cropping of the marble range which crosses the Tennessee river. And at the "Blowing Spring," on the banks of the same stream, he squeezed himself into a cave which he penetrated about 50 feet, and found grand marble beds, beautiful banded marbles of richly variegated colors, gray marbles, and pale and deeply flesh colored marbles. On the lands of J. T. Young he also found beautiful marble, chalcedony, and hematite iron ore. The iron, wood, marble, water power, and material for fire-bricks, are all contiguous.

About 5½ miles from the mouth of the same river, he examined a saltpetre cave. He gathered a handful, as pure as any coming from a manufactory. He thinks it will justify the erection of a powder mill.

Near the same point is a valuable mineral spring, and excellent mill-stone grits in abundance, and pure and mixed agalmatolite.

Indeed his whole excursion was a succession of discoveries of mineral and other treasures with which that region abounds.

A GOOD STATE TO LIVE IN.—The Newbern Frogress, copying a paragraph from this paper enumerating some of the distinguished men who have gone to other States, says,—

"It seems that the soil of North Carolina is fertile in the production of great men, but somehow unlucky in keeping them. Still, as a general thing, we doubt whether those who leave us are any more prosperous or happy by the change. We have seen something of the world; but no section that possessed as many attractions as North Carolina. Others may consider it a good State to go from, but we think it a good place to stay in."

FIRE IN RALEIGH.—The brick store of Jordan Womble, Esq., on Hargett street, Raleigh, took fire on Wednesday morning last about 2 o'clock, supposed from rats eating friction matches, and all but the cellar was burnt out. Loss $5000 to $7000. No insurance.

RALEIGH AND GASTON ROAD.—The annual meeting of stockholders took place on the 3d.

The election of Directors on the part of individual stockholders resulted as follows:—George W. Mordecai, 1747; Charles L. Hinton, 1039; S. S. Royster, 1473; A. C. Perry, 1465; N. Milam, 1022. Dr. E. A. Crudup declined a nomination. A few scattering votes were given to several other gentlemen.

Gov. Ellis re-appointed the Directors of last year on the part of the State, viz:—C. H. K. Taylor, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Maj. G. H. Wilder.

The Board of Directors subsequently met and re-elected Maj. G. H. Wilder, President, without opposition.

A dividend of six per cent. on the transactions of the year was declared.

Twenty-five shares of the stock were sold immediately after the adjournment of the meeting of stockholders, five for $67 and twenty for $69, the dividend off.

EXECUTION.—A man named Starling was executed at Kinston on Friday last, for murder. Four or five thousand people were present, all anxious to get the nearest view of the horrible spectacle. There is stated to have been a great deal of drunkenness and profanity in the crowd.

THE HARPER'S FERRY TRIALS.—Judge Parker on Wednesday overruled the motion for arrest of judgment in Brown's case, and sentenced him to be hanged on Friday the 2d of December next.

The trial of Edwin Coppee was concluded on the same day, and he was found guilty.

When the Clerk asked Brown whether he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, he immediately rose, and in a clear, distinct voice said:

"I have, may it please the Court, a few words to say. In the first place, I deny everything but what I have all along admitted, of a design on my part to free slaves. I intended certainly to have made a clean thing of that matter, as I did last winter when I went into Missouri and there took slaves, without the snapping of a gun on either side, moving them through the country and finally leaving them in Canada. I designed to have done the same thing again on a larger scale. That was all I intended. I never did intend murder or treason, or the destruction of property, or to excite or incite slaves to rebellion, or to make insurrection. I have another objection, and that is that it is unjust that I should suffer such a penalty had I interfered in the manner which I admit, and which I admit has been fairly proved, for I admire the truthfulness and candor of the greater portion of the witnesses who have testified in the case,—had I so interfered in behalf of the rich, the powerful, the intelligent, the so-called great, or in behalf of any of their friends, either father, mother, brother, sister, wife or children, or any of that class, and suffered and sacrificed what I have in this interference, it would have been all right; every man in this court would have deemed it an act worthy of reward rather than punishment. This Court acknowledge to, as I suppose, the validity of the law of God.

I see a book kissed, which I suppose to be the Bible or at least the New Testament, which teaches me that all things whatsoever I would that men should do to me, I should do even so to them. It teaches me further, to remember them that are in bonds as bound with them. I endeavored to act up to that instruction. I say I am yet too young to understand that God is any respecter of persons. I believe that to have interfered as I have done, as I have always freely admitted, I have done in behalf of his despised poor, no wrong, but right. Now, if it is deemed necessary that I should forfeit my life for the furtherance of the ends of justice and mingle my blood further with the blood of my children and with the blood of millions in this slave country, whose rights are disregarded by wicked, cruel and unjust enactments, I say let it be done. Let me say one word further. I feel entirely satisfied with the treatment I have received on my trial. Considering all the circumstances, it has been more generous than I expected; but I feel no conciousness of guilt. I have stated from the first what was my intention and what was not. I never had any design against the liberty of any person, nor any disposition to commit treason or excite slaves to rebel, or make any general insurrection. I never engaged any man to do so, but always discouraged any idea of that kind. Let me say also in regard to the statements made by some of those who were connected with me, I fear it has been stated by some of them that I have induced them to join me, but the contrary is true. I do not say this to injure them, but as regretting their weakness. Not one but joined me of his own accord, and the greater part at their own expense. A number of them I never saw and never had a word of conversation with till the day they came to me, and that was for the purpose I have stated. Now, I have done."

While Brown was speaking perfect quiet prevailed, and when he had finished the Judge proceeded to pronounce sentence upon him. After a few preliminary remarks, he said that no reasonable doubt could exist of the guilt of the prisoner, and sentenced him to be hung in public, on Friday the 2d of December next.

Brown received his sentence with composure.

The only demonstration made was by the clapping of the hands of one man in the crowd, who is not a resident of Jefferson county. This was promptly suppressed and much regret is expressed by the citizens at its occurrence.

Brown's counsel will carry his case up to the Court of appeals, on their bill of exceptions.

CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 3.

The Appeal in the Case of Brown—Trial of Shields Green—Cook's case—Condition of Stevens.—The trial of Shields Green, alias Emperor, negro, is now going on. Mr. Griswold appeared as his counsel. Judge Russell, of Boston, is also on his way here, to take part in the defence of the prisoners. In the remainder of the cases the same course will be pursued as in those of Brown and Coppee. The prosecution will prove their points, get a verdict, and the defence will move for an arrest of judgment. The decision of the Court of Appeals in Brown's case will thus settle the whole. It is believed that the Court will sentence all the prisoners to be hung on the same day.

In Cook's case it is anticipated that a plea of guilty will be entered, and that he will make certain revelations, upon the strength of which a commutation of sentence will be sought.

Stevens is still in a dangerous condition.

Mr. Hoyt, one of Brown's counsel, has returned to Boston.

Bad News for the Abolitionists.—A despatch from Richmond states, that it has been decided on by the Virginia authorities to hand over Cook—John Brown's lieutenant—to be tried by the federal court in the Harper's Ferry district. The object of this is to have Seward, Greeley, Sanborn, Wilson, Hale, Forbes, Gerrit Smith, and all others who were implicated in the conspiracy, or who are known to have been in the secrets of the conspirators, subpœnaed as witnesses and placed on the stand to tell all they know in the matter. They are outside the jurisdiction of the Virginia State Courts, but not of the federal courts.

Petersburg Express.

Five Hundred Dollars Reward.—Gov. Wise has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500, each, for the arrest of Owen Brown, Barclay Coppee, Francis J. Meriam and Charles P. Tidd—or $2,000 for the whole of them. They are charged with participating in the Harper's Ferry Insurrection.—Petersburg Express.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An excursion train on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad was thrown off the track by running over a cow on Tuesday last, and ten persons were killed and many badly injured.

A NICE PLACE.—A writer in Northern paper, giving an account of his travels in Texas, says of a town called Brenham,

"Brenham I only saw at night. It can boast of the meanest hotel in Texas. After looking at a so called supper I was shown to a room containing three beds, the floor nicely sanded, located over a hog pen. I took the outside of the bed, another traveller having occupied the inside, with boots on, depositing a goodly quantity of sand, lifted from the floor, doutbless. On closing the window to keep out the cold wind, I found it had no glass in it."

HOW SHALL BROWN BE PUNISHED?—At the first blush there can have been but little difference of opinion on this point. Almost every considerate man, North as well as South, perfectly satisfied that he and his associates had committed crimes against which the death penalty is properly denounced, felt that it was but reasonable and right that they should suffer that penalty. It would be not only meting out justice to him and them, but it would serve as an awful warning to all other like offenders, if hereafter there should be any disposed to follow the example. This was our own very decided opinion and wish. Whilst we cannot say that we have entirely changed that opinion and that wish, we admit that they have been considerably shaken by the earnest pleading of so true a friend to the South, or rather to the country, as the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. That paper, while it strongly affirms that Brown and his gang deserve to suffer death, and that they ought to be tried and condemned to die, yet urges, that as a matter of sound policy it would be well for the Governor of Virginia to commute the sentence to one of imprisonment for life in the penitentiary at hard labor. Virginia, it says, can afford to show this clemency, and has nothing to lose by it. "Death often makes men martyrs for very insufficient reasons. But imprisonment for life only makes them felons. Few men sympathize with the felon; almost all have tears to shed for the martyr. John Brown should not be made a martyr; he is not worthy of it. The putting of these miserable men to death, in the present excited state of public feeling, would exasperate, instead of giving time for cool reflection. The latter is what is now needed by the masses of the people in all sections of our country. And imprisonment for life, and hard labor, would answer all the ends of justice. Most of the band of desperadoes were killed in the struggle. Their weak and foolish attempt demonstrated that the slaves around Harper's Ferry in Virginia and Maryland, are attached and faithful to their masters; there is therefore nothing to be gained by inaugurating a system of terrorism, when it is so manifestly unnecessary."

There is much force in these suggestions, coming as they do from a friend. For one, we think that if harmony between the sections can be restored; if the fang of the serpent can be extracted; if the fanatical crew of the North can be disarmed, by the commutation of the sentence, it will be wise policy to heed the advice. We are the more inclined to lean to that policy from the fact that the South has committed some mistakes within the past ten years, that have vastly strengthened the hands of its enemies. It may be well to make a concession now for the purpose of paralyzing them.

The N. Y. Times unites with the Journal in this matter. It says,—

The whole mass of the Northern people, with the exception of the most ultra Abolitionists, (and their numbers are pitifully small,) are unanimous in cordial condemnation of this invasion, and of any violent crusade against slavery in the Southern States. There is no difference of opinion upon this subject in this section of the country. Men of all parties, and of all shades of opinion on the general question of Slavery, look with unfeigned horror and detestation upon any armed invasion of the South, or any attempt to excite the Southern Slaves to insurrection. At the same time it cannot be doubted that Brown's personal bearing throughout his trial—his courage, his courtesy, his perfect self-possession, and his evident conviction of the rightfulness of his acts, have awakened a personal sympathy for him, even in the hearts of those who most detest his principles and his conduct. His execution would deepen this feeling immensely and would give the active Abolitionists fresh ground for renewing their appeals to public sympathy and support. They would have an accession of martyrs to their cause,—and in any crusade of fanaticism martyrdom is infinitely the most available weapon which its enemies can devise or its friends desire.

From the tone of the speeches of several abolitionists and the abolition papers at the North, it is perfectly manifest that they all wish Brown to be hanged, as the most certain mode to advance their diabolical purposes. They dare Gov. Wise to hang him, well knowing that that is the surest way to induce him to do so. The Richmond Enquirer, edited by a son of Gov. Wise, accordingly treats the idea of commuting the sentence with scorn and derision.

It is said that leading Democrats in New York are earnestly importuning Gov. Wise not to hang Brown, as such an act would neutralize all that the Harper's Ferry foray has done towards putting down the Republican party.

A BAD SIGN.—An immense crowd in the Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, listening to and cheering the most incendiary speech of any age, by Wendell Phillips. Occasionally indeed, hisses mingled with the cheers; but they were extorted by some incidental remark. The evil he uttered drew only laughter and cheers.

The N. Y. Times, which gives a full report of the speech, says however, that "not a dozen out of the thousands who heard him give any assent to his diatribes against the Union, his sneers at WASHINGTON, or his prophetic declaration" &c. &c. Perhaps so; but we are sorry to say it looks otherwise to us at a distance.

In Hillsborough, on the 26th ult., by the Rev. M. A. Curtis, D. D., Dr JOSEPH GRAHAM to Miss BETTIE HILL, daughter of Thomas B. Hill, Esq.

On the 2d inst., by Rev. C. Shaw, Mr. JAMES A. MURPHY to Miss MARY R. BANNERMAN, all of New Hanover county.

DIED,

In this town, on Saturday morning last, Miss MABEL BINGHAM, in the 78th year of her age.

The deceased was born in South Hadley, Mass., on the 31st of March 1782. She came to this town in the Spring of 1817, as a Teacher, and ever since, up to the time of her last illness, has been zealously and successfully engaged in the duties of that vocation.

She was noted for remarkable energy of character, strength and cultivation of mind, and the warmth of her feelings. Her loss will be deeply felt and her memory affectionately cherished, not only by a large number of attached pupils, who in time past have enjoyed her faithful care and instruction, but by many friends, to whom also, by the excellent qualities of her mind and heart, she imparted singular profit and pleasure in the social circle. The extraordinarily large crowd of both sexes and all ages which surrounded the "narrow house" in which her remains were deposited, evidenced the hold which she had acquired on the public regard.

She died in the Communion of the Episcopal Church, of which she had been a member for forty years, and was a good example of that Scripture which saith: "The righteous hath hope in his death." [Com.

THE ROWDY CITY.—The election in Baltimore on Tuesday last was probably as terrible a scene of violence as any which preceded it in that mob city. Desperate conflicts occurred at nearly every place of voting, the stronger party driving off the weaker, with clubs, knives, pistols and guns. In these encounters several lives were lost, and many persons seriously wounded. The police did little or nothing. Each party, (that is, the American party, and the Reform party, composed of odds and ends from all parties,) lays the blame upon the other. To us both seem equally guilty, though in most of the wards the battle resulted in driving off the Reformers from the polls.

Wm. P. Preston, Democratic candidate for Congress, was badly beaten on the head, and was taken to Barnum's Hotel, where he lies in a critical condition.

At night, the streets were nearly deserted except by the victors; all the stores were closed at dark. It was "a reign of terror." God help our country! what is it coming to?

The Baltimore American says,—"The election yesterday can be justly termed nothing but an outrage—an outrage against decency, against law, and against all rights public and private. The city was given up to the control of lawless ruffianism, supported and encouraged by the police, and approved of and urged on by the recognized leaders of the American party. Armed bands of lawless characters held possession of nearly all the polling places, the efforts which the friends of a fair and legal election made to preserve order were treated as acts of riot, and the only arrests made by the police were of respectable and well known citizens whose whole lives are the guarantee of their obedience to the laws. Every species of fraud, every degree of ruffianism, and every violation of sworn duty, was used to defeat the expression of the will of the people. Bands of men whose looks bespoke their character, rode in omnibuses and carriages from one poll to the other voting without check at each. The accumulated disgrace and shame of the scene was painful to contemplate, and we can scarcely control our own feelings to write of it with any degree of calmness."

We see that the Democratic papers are bitterly complaining,—and justly too—of these outrages, which they falsely attribute entirely to their opponents. Even if it were true that the Americans alone were to blame, the Democrats should remember who it was that originated these "Clubs" that so outrage all decency and right. Capt. Rynders and his Empire Club were the first of this sort, if we recollect aright. Now they have "returned to plague the inventors."

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.

Maryland Elections—Legislature Overwhelming Democratic.—The following Congressmen have been elected: Harris, Davis and Webster, Americans. Stewart, Hughes and Kunkel, Democrats. Just as it stood before—three and three.

The House of Delegates will be composed of 25 Americans and 49 Democrats. Senate—eight Americans and thirteen Democrats. One county to hear from.

The Hon. Mr. Lowe, Ex-Governor of the State, and other prominent Marylanders, confidently assert that the next Legislature will promptly enact a law to ensure peaceful elections in Baltimore hereafter.

LARGE VEGETABLES.—The Editor of the Hillsboro' Recorder has received from Mr. W. P. Morrow a sweet potato weighing 11½ lbs., and from Jas. N. Patterson a turnip weighing 7½ lbs. Mr. Richard Cooper of Alamance plucked a fine ripe watermelon on the 14th Oct., from a vine which produced 49 melons, this last being one of the small ones, weighing 15 lbs. The 49 are supposed to have weighed 800 lbs.

Bogle, the distinguished portrait painter (a native of Fayetteville, N. C.,) is on a Southern tour of engagements and visiting, and will visit this city.

He will be welcomed by many admirers, and will have many friends.—Charleston Courier.

EQUITY LAND SALE.

IN pursuance of an order of the Court of Equity, for Cumberland County, upon the Petition of Edward Barge, et al, I will sell at the Court House Door, in Fayetteville, on Monday of Superior Court, the 14th Nov., a tract of LAND, formerly belonging to Lewis Barge, dec'd., situated in MOORE County, on Conner Dowd's Wagon Road—joining the Savage lands, and beginning 100 yards west of Conner's Spring. The said land is about 80 miles from Fayetteville, on the waters of Upper Little River, about 4 miles from the Western Rail Road, and 2 miles from the Western Plank Road, between the said roads, containing about 200 Acres. This land is valuable for Timber and Turpentine, and has never been boxed.

Terms $50 cash, balance 6 months with interest from date.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold a tract of LAND in Fayetteville, containing 10 or 15 Acres, on the South East of Haymount, lying on both sides of McIver Street, near Ellis's Pond, joining Calvin Davis, S. Mims, and others

Terms, Six months with interest from date. Bond and approved Security required from the purchasers.

54*6w] W. A. HUSKE, Clerk & Master.

Land for Sale.

HAVING purchased land in Alabama, I am anxious to sell, and will give a good bargain in my Plantation on Ashpole Swamp in Robeson County, joining the lands of Wiley Aiford, John Purcell, and others, containing nearly one thousand acres, and as the land is nearly equally divided by said swamp, there might be two good settlements, and I would sell it that way if it would suit the purchasers. I deem it unnecessary to say anything about the quality of the land, as a purchaser would be certain to judge for himself.

ESTABLISHED IN WILMINGTON, N. C.

HAVING secured the Agency for the sale of the above unrivalled instruments, we invite the attention of all who may want a FIRST CLASS PIANO (and no other is worth buying) to the fact, and respectfully solicit the most intelligent and critical examination of the instruments now on exhibition. These Pianos have secured more Premiums than any other manufacture. A GEM!

The New Style, Small,
COLORED PHOTOGRAPHS,
AT Vanorsdell's Gallery.

ART.

A NEW STYLE of Colored Photographs that will last for ages—more beautiful than Oil Paintings—has been gotten up at Vanorsdell's Gallery, expressly to suit the wants of those who desire a small colored picture and who object to the oil portrait on account of its cost. It is offered to the public with entire confidence in its permanency, and at a price that will suit all.

Having just returned from the North with a new and complete set of instruments, where I spent five weeks in getting the newest improvements, I am able to say to the citizens of Fayetteville and surrounding country, that I can give them all the different sizes and styles of Pictures that are gotten up North or South. Among my instruments is a Woodward's Solar Camera, which enables me to enlarge a life-size Photograph from the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype.

Persons having a small picture of a deceased friend, can have it retaken of any desired size, and colored in oil, India ink or water color, by sending to me, stating the color of hair and eyes. Prices for Colored Photographs, from small size to life, range from $10 to $50.

I have removed and enlarged my Gallery, (opposite the Marble Yard,) and my customers will find a pleasant reception room and an Operator determined to give satisfaction.

Sept. 19, 1859 50tf

Ambrotypes, Cameotypes, Melaneotypes, Daguerreotypes, Neilographs, and in short all the different styles of Types that are taken, will be found at my Gallery.

The Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and see specimens.

THE NEW EDITIONS OF THE Supreme Court Reports.

THE Publishers, conceiving that their New Editions, with Judge Battle's Notes, of some of the volumes of Reports which had gone out of print, have not sufficiently attracted the attention of the Profession, have been happy to receive the following voluntary tribute to their merits, from a distinguished Lawyer:—

RALEIGH, July 27, 1859.

MESSRS. E. J. HALE & SON:—GENTLEMEN:—I confess, I did not have an opportunity, until a week or two since, to examine your re-publication of the first Vol. of Dev. & Bat. Eq. Rep., and also the first Vol. of the same Reporters' of the Law decisions of the Supreme Court. It is no compliment, either to you or Judge Battle, to say, as an humble member of the profession, I thank you for this most valuable addition to the Judicial treasure of the State. To the members of the legal profession the Notes of Judge B. are of great value, and I do most sincerely hope you will receive from the profession generally that encouragement and patronage which you deserve.

I am, gentlemen, yours,
most truly and resp'tfully,
H. W. MILLER.

The Publishers have now in press, about two-thirds printed, the 2d Vol. of Devereux & Battle's Equity, with Judge Battle's valuable Notes, and with many typographical errors corrected. Orders solicited.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded entirely from GUMS,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions, when the Liver are at fault, and the whole of one organ—the Liver—is affected, the whole system suffers in consequence—for the disease of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy whereby to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint, in any of its forms, is solicited to call on the subscriber, who will give a Certificate, or refer them to those in their own town, or place a bottle of medicine in their hands, free of charge, on trial. The Certificate is not to be had unless the medicine proves to be what it is recommended. Conviction is certain.

These Liver Complaints arise from a healthy flow of bile, being prevented from its regular course, by which the bile, instead of being evacuated from the body, as it should be, is carried back into the system, causing food to digest sour, giving tone and health to the whole system, but on the contrary, producing Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholic, Nausea at the stomach, Loss of appetite, Costiveness, Piles, Fever and Inflammation of the Bowels, Inflammation of the Kidneys, and in fact, all diseases arising from a disordered state of the Liver or Stomach, such as Costiveness, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits, can be effectually cured by taking a few bottles of this Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to prevent the food from resting, or rising before digested.

☞ One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve

Morbus. Only one bottle is required to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

Jaundice One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, by exciting the Liver to its proper duties.

Bowel complaints yield to one or two doses.

Summer and Infantile complaints, soon subdued by one dose.

One or two bottles cures attacks caused by Worms in Children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

Worms.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious Type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose given, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.
